Alternative House, Inc.

The mission of Alternative House is to facilitate the creation of a society in which violence against women will no longer exist. As a means to this end, we offer shelter, support, options, counseling, and advocacy for all battered women and their children who seek our help. We are committed to the empowerment of women towards self-sufficiency. We do not discriminate against any race, class, culture, age group, or sexual orientation. In addition, we provide community education to reform societal attitudes that permit violence against women. We abide by the Principles of Unity put forth by the Massachusetts Coalition of Battered Women's Service Groups.

Aspirations

Aspirations is a social and vocational skills support group for high functioning adolescents and young adults on the autism spectrum aged from 18-30 years. Aspirations is designed to provide the opportunity to discuss social and vocational skills in a small group setting. Group members are guided in ways to improve their social and vocational skills. Group leaders familiar with autism spectrum disorders facilitate an atmosphere of acceptance and friendship. Developing self-awareness, social insight, and independence are central themes of Aspirations. Aspirations also provides an opportunity for group members to meet others on the autism spectrum and gain support and understanding from one another. Participants are encouraged to develop friendships with other group members. Aspirations runs for eight weeks at the University of Massachusetts, Lowell south campus. We run the program twice a year, once in Fall and once in Spring. We also have a facilitated parent support group which runs at the same time and place as the Aspirations program. This gives parents the opportunity to meet, talk and share useful information.

Bridging the Gap Lawrence - The Salvation Army

Bridging the Gap (BTG) is designed to provide at-risk youth a foundation for reaching their personal potential and for positive interaction with the community-at-large. BTG employs a nonsectarian 12-week life-skills course as the basis of its program. Our goal is to inspire the participants to make good choices, set positive goals for themselves, and thereby reach a place of personal excellence. Bridging the Gap incorporates a twelve-week life skills curriculum as the basis of its program, consisting of the following subjects: 1) Self-assessment of strengths, talents and interests 2) Communication 3) Legal issues 4) Job-seeking and financial planning 5) Ethics 6) Self-esteem and peer pressure 7) Anger management and decision making 8) Addiction 9) Relationships 10) Sexually-transmitted diseases 11) Violence and gangs 12) Culture and diversity. Group discussion, brainstorming, worksheets, and other creative activities are used to aid the youth in understanding and benefiting from the lesson. Guest speakers from the community have included a Juvenile Court judge, a lawyer, a retired bank vice-president, a recovering addict, a loss-prevention team from Wal-Mart, the director of the YMCA's Teen Achiever program, detectives from the Lawrence Police Department's anti-gang unit, a domestic violence specialist, and representatives from the armed forces and Northern Essex Community College. Participants have attended field trips to the Greater Lawrence Community Boating Program, the Scared Straight program at the Essex County Correctional Facility in Middleton, the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, and a trip which included the New England Aquarium, the North End, Faneuil Hall, and the New England Holocaust Memorial. A typical session includes one hour of instruction on that week's subject, a half-hour recreational time, and a quarter hour review and journaling time. Snacks or dinner are offered.

The Caleb Group

The Caleb Group, Inc. Building Community, One Spirit at a Time The Caleb Group is an interfaith organization that coordinates services to enhance and empower the lives and spirits of low and moderate-income elderly, disabled and families in affordable housing communities. This is accomplished by, both responding to felt resident needs, and intentionally building a strong sense of community and mutual respect. Some programs -Community centers -Computer learning centers -Self-enrichment workshops -Transportation to health care -Tutoring and mentoring for at-risk youth and teens. -Summer camp opportunities for youth -Job training and legal service referrals -G.E.D. certification courses -support groups. *****

Mission Statement The mission of The Caleb Group, Inc. is the changing of lives, freeing of the human spirit, and enhancing and promoting self-reliance by coordinating resident services for low and moderate income elderly and families as well as the homeless and handicapped. This is accomplished by responding to felt resident needs, and by intentionally building a strong sense of community and mutual respect. To accomplish the mission The Caleb Group will: Provide qualified staff to serve as Resident Service Coordinators on-site at each property affiliated with the Caleb Foundation or under contract with independent owners. Empower tenants by involving them in various aspects of decision making in managing the property, often by organizing Resident Advisory Committees. Survey tenant needs to determine what supportive services are needed for the residents and arrange low-cost solutions such as computer learning centers, adult education opportunities, developmental programs for community youth, and the coordination of meals, medical and social support. Encourage a healthy community environment by inviting local service agencies onto each property to run specific developmental programs for youth, family and or elderly. Network with like organizations and service agencies in the local area to leverage available resources and optimize community services.

Concord Family and Youth Services,

Justice Resource Institute is dedicated to addressing the most confounding challenges of both the human services and educational systems and the persons and families these systems were created to serve. Justice Resource Institute pursues the social justice inherent in opening doors to opportunity and independence. Although our range of services is as varied as those we serve, our approach is uniformly characterized by compassionate support, innovation, and community leadership. JRI works in partnership with individuals, families, communities and government to address their shared challenges in a comprehensive, coordinated, systematic, and effective manner. JRI seeks new knowledge and improved evidence-based practice, in research and in the field, in order to inform our continuous search for excellence in service.

Department of Children and Families (Formerly DSS)

The Department of Children and Families(formerly the Department of Social Services) is dedicated to the safety, well being, and permanency for children who have been abused or neglected in a family setting. We work first and foremost to keep families together. To achieve this goal, DCF provides family-based services to assist parents in better caring for their children. For those children who are unable to remain at home because of severe abuse or neglect or who are at risk for abuse and neglect, DCF provides temporary out of home care through kinship placement, foster care, group care, or residential programs. These short-term measures are meant to provide interim guidance and support to families until the children can safely be returned home. In case where this is not possible, DCF will seek to provide a child with an alternate permanent situation, such as adoption, guardianship, or, as with older teenagers, independent living and lifelong connections. The Lead Agency for the Lowell DCF FamilyNetworks services is MSPCC,

Department of Children and Families – Haverhill Office

The Department of Social Service (DSS) is the Massachusetts state agency charged with the responsibility of protecting children from child abuse and neglect. DSS is committed to protecting children and strengthening families. When children are abused or neglected by the people responsible for caring for them, DSS will intervene to ensure the safety of the children. DSS responds to reports of abuse or neglect 24 hours a day. DSS becomes involved if there are any concerns that caretakers, parents, step-parents, guardians or other persons responsible for caring for children may be abusing or neglecting these children. Whenever possible and appropriate, DSS attempts to keep families intact. DSS reviews all the reports of child abuse and neglect received by the agency. If it is determined that abuse or neglect has occurred, or if a child appears to be at risk of being hurt, or is being neglected, DSS takes action to protect that child.

Essex Art Center

The Essex Art Center (EAC) is a nonprofit art organization with a mission to inspire and nurture the diverse artistic potential of the Greater Lawrence Community through classroom exploration and gallery exhibitions, making the creation and enjoyment of art accessible to all. In November 1993 three women opened a gallery and small classroom on Essex Street and were determined to show fine art and teach art classes to any citizen of Lawrence and the Merrimack Valley who was interested. Since then Linda Maddox has moved on leaving Leslie Costello and Helen Tory to continue the dream of building a valuable art resource in downtown Lawrence. In 1995 they moved to a larger premises, with 7,200 square feet of galleries and classrooms in the Mill district, where the dream strengthens and grows... and as of July 2001 we occupy 13,200 sq. ft of creative space.

Greater Lowell Health Alliance

The Greater Lowell Health Alliance of the Community Health Network Area 10 was founded in 2006 with a mission to identify and address healthcare issues facing the Greater Lowell community. By raising awareness and providing resources for our communities, schools, civic and business leaders, and healthcare providers, we empower them to make decisions and take actions that will lead to an improvement in the overall health of our communities. The Greater Lowell Health Alliance of the Community Health Network Area 10 is comprised of healthcare providers, business leaders, educators, civic and community leaders with a common goal to help the Greater Lowell community identify and address its health and wellness priorities. The Greater Lowell Health Alliance was founded in 2005 and merged in 2008 with the CHNA 10. A Community Health Network Area (CHNA) is a coalition that is comprised of public, non-profit and private sectors working together to build healthier communities through community-based prevention planning and health promotion. Created in 1992 by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, the CHNA initiative involves 351 cities and towns in 27 different networks throughout Massachusetts. Bringing together the Greater Lowell Health Alliance and CHNA has strengthened our ability to work with others to enrich the Greater Lowell community; network and share ideas with people with similar interest in building a healthier Greater Lowell community; gain more knowledge about health-related issues and topics; and increase cultural competency of the services provided in the Greater Lowell community. The organization is headed by an Advisory Board, and members of the public are invited to join our Healthy Weight Task Force or our Tobacco Task Force.

The Jericho Road Project

The Jericho Road Project bridges communities by matching the professional talents of volunteers with the needs of community-based nonprofit organizations and businesses to promote community development, strengthen social services, and enrich the lives of volunteers. Jericho Road's approach to a community is pro-active (we seek out business and try to anticipate and address emerging problems or opportunities); holistic (we define our service offerings by the many different needs of our clients) and long-term (we create a permanent connection between two communities and the people who live in them. Since our launch in early 2003, our volunteers and our corporate partners have over 60 non profit organizations and small businesses through two core programs: Springboard and B.E.A.N.E. Springboard - Jericho Road's flagship program provides customized services to nonprofits to help them achieve their goals. The type of services provided is virtually unlimited, ranging from board building, organizational assessment, and strategic planning to marketing, professional coaching and website development. Jericho Road's other core program - Business Experts Assisting New Entrepreneurs, or BEANE - helps entrepreneurs launch and grow small businesses in Lowell by providing business training and one-on-one coaching to prospective and new entrepreneurs in need of help. This service is provided largely in partnership with the Lowell Small Business Assistance Center.

Massachusetts MENTOR, Lawrence Children's Program

Services for Children with Emotional and Behavioral Challenges Nationally known for our expertise in working with children and their families, Massachusetts MENTOR approaches each child as a unique individual. Our services, customized to fit each young person's needs, are designed to improve child and family functioning, assist with permanency planning where appropriate and maximize the effectiveness of limited state resources. This individualized, flexible approach allows us to serve a diverse range of children of different ages, backgrounds and needs, including emotional and behavioral issues, juvenile offenders and those with complex medical needs. Massachusetts MENTOR's Lawrence Children's Program in Lawrence, MA offers Specialized Foster Care services in the service areas North and Northwest of Boston. This flexible program provides youths from troubled families, institutions and other settings including teen parents and their babies with a warm, stable environment coupled with the interventions needed to address severe emotional and behavioral disorders often stemming from abuse and neglect. Placement in the home of a specially trained caregiver, called a Mentor, is carefully matched according to each child's needs. Mentors provide children in their care with therapeutic intervention, nurturing support and the consistent guidance in addition to routine family- and community-based activities. A Clinical Coordinator oversees implementation of an Individualized Treatment Plan with emphasis on discharge planning to assure the youth's appropriate progress and transition to home, permanent placement or independent living.

Methuen Arlington Neighborhood, Inc.

The Methuen Arlington Neighborhood is a densely populated, low to moderate income area located close to the City of Lawrence. Sharing the same problems as Lawrence - poverty, lack of employment opportunities, and social ills - this area is able to receive some financial assistance due to the fact that Methuen is a small cities mini-entitlement area. To begin formally working on improving the quality of life in the area, neighborhood residents formed a Community Development Corporation (CDC), the Methuen Arlington Neighborhood, Inc. (M.A.N., Inc.). In March of 1995, this organization became incorporated as M.A.N. Inc. The neighborhood is also the site of the Department of Justice's Weed and Seed Program. M.A.N. Inc's prime target area for the purpose of representation and service is within the Town of Methuen, primarily within the borders of the Spicket River, Horne Street, Lawrence Street, and the Lawrence City Line of Center Street.

Neighbors In Need

Neighbors In Need has fed the poor and hungry of Greater Lawrence for nearly 25 years. We give food to those in need without judgment, respecting the dignity of each individual. All food, formula, diapers, clothing and household items are provided free of charge to those who request them. Neighbors In Need was founded in 1983 to provide food to needy families in the Greater Lawrence Area under the sponsorship of Rudolf Canon Devik, Rector of Grace Church in Lawrence. Two food pantries were opened the first year with more added as the organization grew. Since its founding in 1983, Neighbors In Need has been a faith-based community organization relying heavily on area churches for support. Today, Neighbors In Need serves families in eight food pantries throughout Lawrence and Methuen. The Infant in Need Program provides baby formula and diapers for at-risk children. The Adopt-A-Family Program provides holiday meals and gifts. Neighbors In Need distributes clothing and household items donated by individuals, schools and local corporations.

Pathfinder / Safe Haven

Pathfinder/Safe Haven's mission is to work toward the end of homelessness in Lowell. This is executed with an attack on homelessness. Pathfinder/Safe Haven specifically serves the needs of the mentally ill homeless population with safe-havens and generally serves the needs of all the homeless with cooperative outreach efforts. By understanding the nature of mental illness and the other causes and perpetuators of homelessness, Pathfinder/Safe Haven is able to help the homeless better manage their lives. After fulfilling immediate safety and survival needs, Pathfinder/Safe Haven broadens the pyramid to teach the homeless the skills necessary to regain and maintain the highest degree of autonomy possible. Pathfinder/Safe Haven harnesses the education and life experience of its staff and participants to provide a multi level service plan capable of satisfying the diverse needs of the homeless. Placing emphasis on housing and hunger issues, medical and mental health care, substance abuse counseling, and job training and education, Pathfinder/Safe Haven provides the homeless a safe, sober environment and the support necessary to make a successful transition from the street.

The Psychological Center

Our Mission is to help individuals, children, and families learn positive coping responses to the stressors of life that they experience in the home, school, workplace, and society. The delivery of behavioral health services that includes the disciplines of psychology, social work, psychiatry, counseling, and nursing is an important and integral component of the overall health and well-being of all people. Behavioral health care plays an essential and broadening role in our society, economy, education and government. We are committed to creating and sustaining healthy and secure communities, achieved through a system that holds the needs of consumers paramount, regardless of their ability to pay. Vital to this commitment is a continuum of care that promotes services of the highest quality and value. Historically, our values and practices provide a strong foundation for the delivery of accessible community-based programs for consumers from all walks of life. Our services will be based on the needs and strengths of the consumer who will be treated with dignity and respect. We will provide responsive, accessible, and culturally competent services that includes the involvement of consumers, their families, and their social support network. Services will reflect a multi-modal approach that reflects the need of our consumers throughout their lives. We are committed to effective, evidence-based interventions and measured outcomes. We believe that in today's healthcare environment, competence-based management and clinical practice are essential. We are committed to an environment that fosters learning and sharing within our agency and with the greater community. We remain champions of effective, innovative, science-based interventions that will foster the health and well-being of our consumers and our communities.

Robert F. Kennedy Children's Action Corps

The mission of The Mentoring Program, an agency-based program, is to offer system involved youth the chance to develop a trusting relationship with an adult mentor who can become their friend, role model and advocate. Through specific, mentor-guided activities we hope to assist youth in building many skills such as confidence, self esteem, and leadership. Youth will also develop or refine skill, career and personal goals. The mutual experiences they impart, with the support of program staff will ultimately instill pro-social behavior; reduce delinquency, recidivism and other destructive and self destructive behaviors. This new initiative hopes to expand the scope of that care and galvanize our belief that responsibility to our society does not end after treatment, but is our lifelong mandate to support the poor and disadvantaged. I would like to offer you the opportunity to find out more about our program and discover that we have the same commitment to our communities that you do. Inspire action. Become a Mentor.

Saints Medical Center Growth & Nutrition Clinic

We provide family-centered evaluation and treatment for children with growth delay. Our goal is to offer family focused help for infants and children who are not gaining and growing properly. Some children are unable or unwilling to eat enough to gain and grow properly and don't gain weight over time as expected compared to children their own age. From birth to age 2 is the most important period for brain growth. Under nutrition during this time makes it difficult for a child to met his developmental milestones. Under nutrition especially in very young children is associated with many behavior and developmental delays. We work with families of children who are not gaining and growing, who may have medical issues such as reflux or other GI issues, gagging when solid foods are introduced, or don't transition to table foods, have frequent ear infections, get sick a lot, who have very small appetites, who are difficult to feed, may be anemic, were born premature or small and are having trouble gaining weight. We work with families who have "picky eaters" and feel a lot of stress trying to feed their infant or toddler. Our goal is to help parents and children enjoy the feeding relationship, have children gain and grow properly, prevent or treat under nutrition, help families obtain the resources, supplements, and help they need.

Youth Villages, Inc.

Our Guiding Principles All Youth Villages employees are committed to the mission and values that guide our organization. Adherence to these simple, specific principles ensures that we offer the very best, most effective help to every child in our care and provides the foundation for our organization's dynamic growth. Our Mission Youth Villages helps children and families live successfully. Our Values Kids' needs come first...Always We make every decision in the best interest of each child. We adapt our programs to accommodate the special needs of children and families. Often we make personal sacrifices in order to help children and families achieve their potential. Children are raised best by their families. When at all possible, children belong with their families. We help families provide the support and structure that all children need. We provide a safe place. We provide care and treatment for children in an open, safe environment. We ensure that young people are physically and emotionally safe. We strive to achieve positive, lasting results. We help children and families develop skills to live successfully by focusing on areas that have a long-term impact on the family. We are committed to our staff. We recognize the many challenges our staff face each day. We value teamwork and help staff achieve their potential through an atmosphere of open communication, learning and fun. We are each responsible for providing the highest level of service to our customers. We deliver our best by listening and responding to our customers...every time, every day. We constantly improve our performance to achieve excellence. We measure our efforts by accessing our strengths and needs to identify areas for improvement. We believe that anything can be made better. We create new programs to meet the needs of children, families and the community. We develop innovative programs that serve children and families facing the most challenging circumstances. Our entrepreneurial spirit leads us to test the limits of existing services and create new opportunities. We do what we say we do. Our mission and values are more than just something to talk about. They guide all of our decisions. We believe that our integrity can only be measured by how we live by these values each day.
